QUOTATIONS

In their own words

"they have a choice.....they could keep stock...unlike many stock farmers whose land restricts them"

"His land like ours isn’t suitable for wheat growing more especially with these dry springs and summers. It only pays if it’s heavily subsidised which it was for years. It’s not subsidised now hence it..."

DrWazzock · 10 reactions

"Harry and Jeremy’s farms are not pure arable farms. They’re hungry Cotswold brash farms that need a lot of muck and a wet summer to give a reasonable yield. The potential is just not there. What they will..."
